

INTERPRETING JOB OFFERS AND MAKING YOUR PROFILE MORE ATTRACTIVE

USEFUL LINKS

All contents in this document are shared under a Creative Commons CC-BY-NC-SA license.

YOU AND YOUR FUTURE JOB: SITES TO HELP GET STARTED

<http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/640/01/>

A superb website specific for foreign students looking for a job in the US; lots of links for help in job search writing and for writing in general. One of the best sites on the web for students needing to write better.

<http://careercenter.depaul.edu/resumes/>

Wonderful guides for resumes and cover letters and more, that you can download

<http://www.bu.edu/careers/resumes-cover-letters/>

Wonderful guides for resumes and cover letters and more, that you can download

<https://student.unsw.edu.au/job-application-tips-and-examples>

A complete resource in job searching for students

<http://www.lse.ac.uk/intranet/CareersAndVacancies/careersService/CVCoverApps/CVs/ExampleCVs.aspx>

London School of Economics: many downloadable sample CVs for different degree levels for UK

https://www.trinitydc.edu/career/files/2010/10/Sample_Cover_Letters.pdf

Downloadable set of sample cover letters

<http://www.collegegrad.com/resumes/>

Website aimed at college graduates with an interesting discussion of each of the elements involved in the job search

<http://esl.about.com/library/howto/htresume.htm>

Aimed at non-native speakers of English

"Job interview Bootcamp"

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JYqI0mAp2AY>

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=BQMtFFb-E7k&feature=channel>

http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DPHhDnk_0XA&feature=channel

A set of nice, short presentations in the basics of interviewing (there are many more sites in this series beyond the three given above)

<http://theinterviewguys.com/how-to-make-a-resume-101/>

Good coverage of everything concerning the jobs search

IMPORTANT REFERENCE SITES

TRANSLATION

<http://www.wordreference.com/>

SYNONYMS

<http://www.thesaurus.com/>

DICTIONARIES

<http://www.merriam-webster.com/dictionary/>

<http://www.oxforddictionaries.com/>

COLLOCATIONS DICTIONARIES

<http://prowritingaid.com/Collocation.aspx>

<http://oxforddictionary.so8848.com/>